

Mr. Rohit Bhandari, Advocate
Advocate, High Court of Karnataka
Chambers: No. 6, Millers Road, Bengaluru - 560052

---

Ref. No.: VFI/LN-REPLY/2025/07

Date: 29.12.2025

To,

Ms. Kavya Nataraj, Advocate

No. 18, Advocates' Chambers, Cubbon Park Road, Bengaluru - 560001

Subject: Reply to your Legal Notice Ref. APC/LN/2025/214 dated 10.12.2025

Dear Sir/Madam,

Under instructions from my client, Vindhya Fabtech Industries Private Limited, I reply to your notice under reference as follows.

My client does not dispute the execution of the Master Supply Agreement dated 05.03.2025 or the issuance of Purchase Order No. VFI/PO/2025/0118.

My client, however, disputes the quantum claimed and states that a portion of the Tranche 2 supply did not conform to the agreed specification, for which a quality credit note is under preparation and shall be adjusted against the outstanding amount.

My client is examining its records and shall respond further with a reconciled position shortly. This reply is issued without prejudice to my client's rights and contentions, all of which are expressly reserved.

Yours faithfully,

(Mr. Rohit Bhandari, Advocate)

Advocate for Vindhya Fabtech Industries Private Limited